Previous to the passage of the Mississippi bill in the House of Representatives, yesterday, Mr. Beck, offered a substitute providing for the admission of the State without conditions. The vote upon this proposition was much larger than was anticipated, and as the roll was called and Radical member after Radical, voted aye, Gon. Butler showed a little uneasiness as to the result, and moved about to induce gentlemen to vote differently. The substitute was defeated by only twelve votes. Of the eightyfive votes in the affirmative, twenty four were Republicans. This being the first opportunity the new Virginia members had of voting on a reconstruction measure, their votes were remarked with interest. They are recorded as follows on Mr. Beck's substitute, viz : Yeas-Messrs. Gibson, McKenzie, Milnes and Ridgway. Nays-Messrs. Ayer, Booker and Platt. Mr. Porter was absent. We are happy to record that Mr. McK. gave his first vote as he did-and as we felt sure he would.

The Fredericksburg Herald says: "There is a very general impression that such of our citizens as were denied the right of voting at the election on the 6th of July last, are still laboring under that disability. This is not sonot one of them is disqualified. The XIVth Amendment to the Federal Constitution does not disqualify anybody from exercising the tranchise. It disqualifies only from holding of fice-those who at any time previous to the war, had taken an oath to support the Consti tution of the U. S. and afterwards engaged in war, or gave aid thereto, against the Federal authorities."

In the House of Representatives, yesterday, Mr. Dawes reported a bill appropriating nearly three millions of dollars for the use of the Navy Department, and conveying the unexpended balances of several of its bureaux back into the Treasury. The appropriation was cut down to two millions of dollars, and in this shape the bill was adopted. In the Senate, the resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to transfer the unexpended balances of one bureau to another was amended to provide that no higher wages shall be paid to navy yard employees, than to private workmen of the same classes.

The present King of the Sandwich Islands is the last of his race. By the Constitution of the country he has the power to appoint his successor, but as yet he declines to do so, from superstitious scruples or fears. Were he to die adjourn the hearing until the 23d instant .without making this nomination (and he is not this should be done provided the charges a robust nor a healthy man, although still in middle life,) his successor would doubtless be gien would report to find a successor would doubtless be life other side did not seem inclined to hush the choice of whichever party could bring to the matter up Various explanations were its aid the largest anyther of adherents and the made from both sides. Mr. Rutherglen showed its aid the largest number of adherants and the real leaders in the country are all foreigners-Americans, English, French and Germans.

The Baltimore Statesman is of opinion that one of the chief motives of the New England Radicals for endeavoring to stave off the admission of Virginia was "to defer as long as possible the inevitable result of the scaptre of polit ical power in Congress passing by the aid of Southern influence into Western hands. This result," says the Statesman, may be delayed, but it can not be prevented."

A most extraordinary divorce case is before the courts of New York. The plaintiff is Commodore John T. Glasson, a veteran officer of the U. S. Navy, aged sixty four years. The defendant, his wife, is fifty-five, and the would be rich. They went away disappointed, mother of two grown sons, and her companion as the details of the case would only come out in the difficulty is another elderly person, John B. So various, contradictory, and oftentimes absurd, are the telegraphic dispatches sent by the Cable, purporting to give news from Rome relative to the proceedings of the Ecumenical Council, that it is salest to give no head to them at all. These dispatches are first sent to the canal and Seventh street, running to Ninth the London papers, and then transmitted to this country.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the Times."

A letter received at General Sheridan's headquarters from Camp Supply, Indian Territory, dated January 23d, says that Bull Bear, a prominent Chief of the Cheyennes, came to that post with important news from the several hes tile tribes thereabouts. He states that the Kiowas, Comarches and Apaches, who are very numerous and formidable, are making ac tive preparation for war upon the whites, and had urged the Cheyennes to join them. No llittle apprehension was excited among the white settlers in the Territory.

Suits have been instituted by Judge Pierre pont to condemn 200,000 gallons of distilled spirits recently seized in N. Y. by Collector Bailey. These suits are in addition to those hitherto commenced by the U. S. District Attorney. The jury heard the testimony, show ing that nearly one hundred liquor dealers in N. Y. were doing business without a license. Twenty thousand dollars worth of smuggled segars were seized yesterday on board the

It is said that Prince Arthur has signified his intention of visiting Wheatland, Pa., the home of the late James Buchanau, and that Mrs. Harriet Lane Johnson, Buchanan's neice, will receive him with all the honors. since 1805. THE BOND CASE .- Judge Underwood, in Chambers, this morning, heard an informal statement of the counter charges against Judge H. C. Bond, Registrar in Bankruptcy, and Andrew Ruther len, esq., general assignee. Gov. Wells represented the former, and Judge W. W. Crump and Col. John H. Guy the latter .-Judge Underwood expressed the hope that a compromise might be effected, and he would against him were withdrawn, and Mr. Rutherglen would report to him as the law directs. that in a case where he had been charged with failing to account for three thousand dollars, the money had never been in his hands-he had now the dishonored notes of the party who, it is alleged, had paid it. He had not set tled up his account for the simple reason that purchasers of bankrupts' property in nearly every case had failed to comply with terms of sale. From his own private funds he had paid the State Journal for advertising two thousand dollars, and he had raised liens upon property in hands amounting to about twenty live hun dred dollars in same way. Judge Bond main-tained that the assignee had been careless and indifferent, and in some instances criminally neglectful of the duties of his position. So far from facilitating, he was constantly impeding the transaction of business. The case was finally postponed until the 23d, and in the meanting if the parties can do it they have permission o the Court to effect a compromise. Though it was early in the morning, (nine o'clock) a large crowd was assembled in the hope of hearing some developments, which, it was promised upon a regular examination .- [Rich. Cor. of

WASHINGTON ITEMS. - In the House of Representatives yesterday Mr. Tanner introduced a bill to incorporate the Washington Market Company. MAN WHIPPED. -- The Montgomery Messenner reports the following occurence: Mr. Charles Thomas, living eight or ten miles southeast of Floyd C. H., Va., was foreibly taken from his house a few nights since, by a party of men in disguise, and most soundly and unmercifully whipped. He received several hundred lashes, well laid on, with stout switches, the bark, splinters, and broken fragments of which were found next morning embedded and sticking in his flesh. He has been suspected of reporting persons in the county, to the officers of the Government, for illicit distilling, and it is supposed that some of the underground boilers of corn juice who have been reported by him, gave him this severe castigation. - Lynchburg

The report of the committee of the American Medical Association on the relations of alcohol to medicine, submitted by Dr. John Bell, chairman, has been published. The report presents an exhaustive examination of the subject, and in summing up conclusions opposes the popular theories as to the value of alcoholic stimulants, and regards the habitual use of alcohol, in its various combinations of distilled order and progress, and as the fruithful source suit to strip some luckless dentor of the last of a long list of diseases and crimes. EXTRAORDINARY SWINDLE .- A most extraordinary swindle has just come to the notice of the "Clovernment:"

"Treasurer Spinner has just received, brough Gen, John A. Logan, a letter from John D. Axton, wherein Mr. Axton represents that he had a claim for $19,145, for horses, Se. appropriated by the Government during the war, which he has been swindled out of by relatives who administered on his estate, and drew the money on the representation that he was dead. It appears that he lived at Vandalia, Illinois, and had the claim pushed by a party who afterwards dropped it. He then put it into the hands of Gen. Logan. In the meantime he moved to Vienna, Illinois, and thus lost the money. He now desires to know if he must lose the amount. He has named one of his children Abraham Lincoln, and another U. S. Grant, and urges that he should not lose this in his old days, when he is penniess. The case will be investigated.

VIRGINIA JURIES. - In discharging the petit urors of the Hustings Court yesterday, Judge Bramhall took occasion to culogize them for fairness and impartiality in the discharge of heir duties. He said that he was convinced after an experience of months that that unfortunate class of persons-the freedmen in our midst-risked nothing in throwing themselves for justice upon their white feilow-citizens. Now that he was probably on the eve of severing his connection with the judiciary, he felt it his duty to place on record this tribute to the people of his adopted State, and wherever he might go he would carry with him a lively recollection of the disposition shown by those Virginians with whom he came officially in contact, to act without prejudice against race or

"The wrong done to Virginia consists not only in the wanton flourish of the Congressional whip over its back, intended as a spiteful assertion of its vassalage to its congressional masters, but in the threat of future supervision which these provisos are intended to imply. There can be no peace, no settled, material prosperity, until this hand of authority is wholly removed, and the equality of the State with all its sisters is fully admitted. The best that can be done to meet the present emergency is for Virginia to accept the terms gracefully, and to give the lie to all the slanders that have been uttered against her people, by a quiet orderly government on the basis proposed."

MURDERED BY HIS OWN BROTHER. By a private letter received in this city yesterday, we learn the particulars of a horrible tragedy, which took place on Thursday last at Hope plantation, on Yazoo river in Mississippi. Mr. Benjamin Roach, a most estimable gentleman. and a very wealthy cotton planter, and who was very well known in this city and throughout the South, was shot and killed by his own brother, David Roach. David is a man of dissipated habits, and spent most of his time in drinking and gambling, and his brother, to reclaim him, offered to give him a well-stocked plantation, and on Thursday had visited him for this very purpose, when he was shot down in cold blood. Mr. Roach leaves a wife, a most estimable lady, and several children .- Louis ville Courier Journal.

STRUCK DOWN AT PRAYERS. - The venerable R. H. He was at church at the time and had been called upon by the pastor of the church to lead in prayer. He, with the congregation, knelt at his seat, but the pastor hearing no response, led in prayer himself, and at its close, when all others had arisen. Mr. Harwood was discovered still in a kneeling position. His family, which was present, with the pastor and many members of the church, gathered around and lifted him up, when he was found to be speechless. He was removed to his home near by, recieving every attention demanded by his
